

Qualifications for Receiving the Dobson Henry Medal

- For outstanding contributions in the Audio-Visual Medium
- For furthering the activity of the Medium.
- For long service to the Medium.

A.

In organising events, such as The Internationals, The Nationals, workshops and AV Days, for working on committees such as the AV Group and the RPS Distinctions Panel.

B.

Working for charity over many years, using AV as the medium.

C.

For helping and advising others not just in public, but also for those people who work quietly in the background.

Although production of ground - breaking sequences is a factor and should be taken account this alone does not quality. The authors will have been recognised in other ways.

It is open to all who work in the field of AV no matter what nationality or country of residence. Not just AV Group Members.

It is hoped that to receive the Medal the candidate will qualify in more than one of the above, but in exceptional circumstances one category may suffice.
